

Google Sheets keyboard shortcuts

Built-in Google Sheets shortcuts, from Google's own list. They're the ones our lessons teach, and they work in Sheets in any browser.

Clipboard and editing

	WINDOWS	MAC
Copy	Ctrl+C	⌘C
Paste	Ctrl+V	⌘V
Undo	Ctrl+Z	⌘Z
Redo	Ctrl+Y	⌘Y
Fill down (copy the top cell into the cells below)	Ctrl+D	⌘D
Fill right (copy the left cell into the cells to its right)	Ctrl+R	⌘R
Edit the selected cell Enter also edits the cell in Sheets. Mac: fn+F2 on a MacBook, unless function keys are set as standard keys.	F2	F2

Moving around

Jump to the edge of the data (down)	Ctrl+↓	⌘↓
Jump to the edge of the data (up)	Ctrl+↑	⌘↑
Jump to the edge of the data (left)	Ctrl+←	⌘←
Jump to the edge of the data (right)	Ctrl+→	⌘→
Go to the start of the sheet (A1) Mac: On a MacBook keyboard: ⌘ fn ←	Ctrl+Home	⌘Home

Selecting

Select to the edge of the data (down)	Ctrl+Shift+↓	⇧⌘↓
Select to the edge of the data (up)	Ctrl+Shift+↑	⇧⌘↑
Select to the edge of the data (left)	Ctrl+Shift+←	⇧⌘←
Select to the edge of the data (right)	Ctrl+Shift+→	⇧⌘→
Select the whole column Mac: If you use more than one keyboard language, macOS may use ^Space to switch input sources.	Ctrl+Space	^Space
Select the whole row	Shift+Space	⇧Space
Select all	Ctrl+A	⌘A

Formulas

Cycle a reference through A1, A$1, $A1, A1 (while editing a formula) Mac: fn+F4 on a MacBook, unless function keys are set as standard keys.	F4	F4